THE FLAG OF TRUCE

Believed to Be Still Floating Over Dons.

ONLY TWO THINGS REMAIN.

They Must Either Surrender Unconditionally or Fight.

THEY MAY CHOOSE THE LATTER.

Spain May Have In Mind the Brutal Message Sent to Admiral Cervera by General Blanco After the Cape Verde Fleet Was Destroyed.

Washington, July 13.—The impression prevailed in official circles when public business closed for the day that the flag of truce set in the Spanish lines at Santiago at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon was still flying, and that negotiations continued looking to a surrender.

The basis for these negotiations naturally could not be very broad in view of the injunction the president laid upon General Shafter to accept nothing less than unconditional surrender, but it is supposed that time may be consumed through the indulgence of General Shafter allowing the Spanish commander to communicate by cable with Captain General Blanco in the effort to obtain his assent to the surrender.

General Toral undoubtedly has before his eyes the vindictive abuse heaped upon the unfortunate naval commander, Cervera, for surrendering at all, so that he probably will be bound by the direction of Blanco in his own case.

It is not generally known that in response to the manly and pathetic report by cable to Blanco announcing the loss of his squadron, Cervera received a most harsh and unsympathetic reply but such is the case.

Blanco's purpose in this may have been to disuade other Spanish commanders, military and naval, from surrendering under any conditions, and in the case of Toral it appears that he has made a strong impression.

Nevertheless confidence waxes in the speedy fall of Santiago, though many officers fear that the nest will be found empty and the birds flown when the American troops make their entry into the town.

Still should this be the case, it may be fairly claimed that the prime object of the movement on Santiago, namely, the destruction of the Spanish squadron, having been achieved, the campaign as a whole has been successful.

General Miles' report indicated that he had found unexpected physical difficulties to contend with and he is apparently greatly pleased with the progress made by the army under the conditions prevailing. He has not assumed command, as is evidenced by his message.

The most important result of the cabinet deliberations was the order to remove the mines which guard all coast ports. Many military men were opposed to yielding to the pressure of the commercial interests, and some of them are predicting that not a few of the communities which have been so earnest in their demand for the removal of the mines will be frantically clamoring for protection at the very first rumor of the presence of a hostile gunboat or cruiser off their coast.

Before the war began our government accumulated a stock of coal at St. Thomas, West Indies. Most of it was ashore, but 1,000 tons were on a schooner lying in the harbor.

Twice since the war broke out the United States has availed of this coal, once to supply the Minneapolis and once the Montgomery, but as each was bound for the nearest home port and took only enough coal to carry them there, it was fairly assumed there had been no breach of neutrality.

However, it appears that there is now a disposition exhibited by the Danish authorities to prevent the United States ships from using this coal, and as there is no question of their right to lay down such a rule the coal itself probably will be let alone.

Fortunately there is no particular need for it, as there are other means of coaling a fleet now in use. The incident is one which will be used as a strong argument for the establishment of coaling stations in various parts of the globe for the benefit of the United States navy.

Although the statement has been repeated day after day that no overtures have yet been made to our government for peace, it may bear repetition once more in view of the express denial given at the state department to so much of the stories emanating from European sources as seek to create the impression that the United States government or any of its representatives so far has made any move in this direction.

The fact is today as it has been: The first overtures in the direction of peace must come from Spain, directly or indirectly.

Will Continue the Struggle.

Paris, July 13.—The officials of the Spanish embassy here communicate to the press a special from Madrid, declaring it came from an authoritative source. It set forth in substance that although Spain was "only fighting in order to maintain her right to repel unjust aggression," she will continue the struggle "until she obtains an honorable peace, whatever sacrifices may be necessary to attain that end."

GREATLY SURPRISED

Were the Spaniards at the Work of the Cruiser Brooklyn.

Santiago, Cuba, July 13.—Through Lieutenant of Marines Thomas S. Borden, who conversed in French with the prisoner, an interview was obtained with Captain Eulate of the Spanish armored cruiser Vizcaya. He said:

"The entire squadron was ordered to devote the fire of their guns to the cruiser Brooklyn, because it was believed that she was the only ship in the American squadron that could overtake us. When we got out of the harbor my ship was second in line and I saw immediately that the flagship Maria Teresa was getting a terrible baptism of fire. It was frightful. The Texas and the Brooklyn were just riddling her and in 15 minutes I saw she was on fire.

The Iowa and Oregon were firing on the Oquendo, and as yet I had not been badly hit. The Brooklyn was a half mile closer to us than any other ship, and I determined to try and ram her so that the Colon and Oquendo could get away, and I started for her.

She was a good mark with her big broadside, and as I started I thought surely I would get her, but she had evidently seen us, and very quickly she turned about and making a short circle came at our port side so that I thought she would ram us.

"I moved in toward shore so that I could avoid her, and then I saw that the Oquendo had gone ashore also, her steampipes evidently having been severed by a shell. The maneuver of the Brooklyn was beautiful. We opened a rapid fire at her with all our big guns, but she returned it with terrible effect. The Oregon also hit us several times, but the Brooklyn's broadside crashing into our superstructure simply terrorized the men.

"We worked all our guns at her at one time and I don't see how she escaped us. She simply drove us in to shore, at one time fighting us at 1,100 yards. One shell went along the entire gun deck, killing half the men on it and wounding nearly all the rest. A shell from the Oregon hit the superstructure and it was then that, wounded and knowing we could not get away, I struck the flag and started for the beach.

"I did not instruct the men to load the guns and do not know why they were loaded. We were on fire badly, and when those men who were alive started to swim for shore the Cubans on shore shot at us until the American ships arrived and stopped them. The Brooklyn prevented me from getting away, for I could have beaten the Oregon out, as I had a two mile lead of her. My orders were to try and sink the Brooklyn, and I tried to carry them out. I did not think that her battery could be so terrible as it was."

Reward For Destroying Fleet.

Washington, July 13.—Something over $200,000 will be paid by the government as "head money" to the officers and sailors who destroyed Cervera's fleet. This is according to the law, which provides payment of $100 a head for every man on the ships of an enemy when these ships are destroyed. A few of the officers will receive pretty good fortunes. The law governing the distribution of this money is very explicit. There are exact provisions for carrying it into effect and every man, according to his rank will be paid in due season.

Spanish Prisoners Contented.

Portsmouth, N. H., July 13.—The Spanish captives who were landed on Seavey's Island have made themselves at home, and most of them spend the time in playing cards of other favorite games. The men have good appetites and have apparently become contented. The food being supplied them is of the best quality. Two of the cooks of the Cristobal Colon have been detailed to assist the 12 Americans in this work, and these men have a much better prospect for good living than they had had in a long time.

Insurgents Defeated.

Madrid, July 13.—An official dispatch from Illoilo, Philippines Islands, says Aguinaldo, the insurgent leader, is "patrolling the coast with a squadron of merchantmen." The dispatch adds that two bands of insurgents at Cebu have been defeated, and that three insurgent leaders have been captured and shot.

Teamsters Desired.

St. Louis, July 13.—Colonel Smith, deputy quartermaster general, has received orders from Washington, to secure 200 teamsters for service in Cuba. In addition to these men, who are wanted immediately, Colonel Smith is instructed to secure 50 more mule packers.

St. Louis to Be Altered.

Philadelphia, July 13.—The auxiliary cruiser St. Louis, which is now at Portsmouth, N. H., is expected to arrive here in a few days. Some necessary alterations are to be made to the St. Louis and a number of guns are to be put in position on her decks.

Arrival of Transports.

Charleston, S. C., July 13.—The transports arrived off the jetties and will come in with the high tide. They are believed to be the Berlin-Obdam and Grand Duchess.

Departure of Recruits.

Chickamauga, Ga., July 13.—At an early hour several hundred recruits for the First brigade, First division, First corps, which left for Charleston, marched to Ringgold, Ga., where they went aboard on a special train for Charleston. These recruits were sent on to join their command by order of General Miles. Before his departure for Santiago General Miles wired General Brooke directing that the soldiers mentioned, as well as the wagon trains of the three regiments, be rushed at once to Charleston.

Intended For Porto Rico.

Washington, July 13.—The movement of the American army on Porto Rico may be said to have begun. No troops have yet left these shores openly consigned to that island, but the continued forwarding of additional regiments to Santiago, when it is recognized that General Shafter has as large an army as he needs to take that town is in reality the laying of the foundation of the Porto Rican expeditionary forces.

Subscriptions to the War Loan.

Washington, July 13.—The subscription to the new war loan will close at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Up to this time both the number of subscriptions received and the aggregate amount subscribed far exceed all estimates. Monday the number of subscriptions was about 21,000 for the day and the total reached the surprising aggregate of 220,000. The total amount bid is nearly $1,250,000,000.

Miller Will Be In Command.

San Francisco, July 13.—General Otis issued an order placing Brigadier General M. P. Miller in command of all the troops left at Camp Merritt and the presidio, including the expeditionary forces. He will be under Major General Merriam, who was recently instructed by the war department to take entire control of all forces after General Otis' departure.

Americans Are Fighters.

Washington, July 13.—Major De Grandprey, military attaché of the French embassy, has returned from the American headquarters near Santiago, where he has been observing for his government the progress of military operations. He paid a glowing tribute to the fighting ability of our soldiers.

The Crisis Hangs Fire.

Madrid, July 13.—The crisis hangs fire. The ministers still meet in council, and the difficulties of retirement seem greater than the difficulties of remaining in office. The logical conclusion is that Señor Sagasta must accept the responsibility of deciding whether or not to open peace negotiations.

Again Refused to Surrender.

Madrid, July 13.—After the cabinet council the ministers asserted that Santiago de Cuba had again refused the American demand for surrender. Duke Almodovar de Rio, minister of foreign affairs, said there was nothing to justify reports regarding a conclusion of peace.

Has Santiago Capitulated?

Rome, July 13.—The Tribune of this city publishes an undated Kingston, Jamaica, dispatch affirming that the city of Santiago de Cuba has capitulated.

Washington, July 13.—Mines have been ordered removed from all rivers and harbors in the United States.

Refused to Surrender.

Before Santiago de Cuba, July 13.—General Toral sent a reply to General Shafter refusing to surrender.

A Spanish Cruiser.

Antwerp, July 13.—The Spanish auxiliary cruiser Ciudad de Cadiz arrived here.

EX-ATTORNEY GENERAL HARMON

Opposes the Policy of Acquiring Foreign Territory.

Put-In-Bay, O., July 13.—The annual address of the president, ex-Attorney General Harmon, to the Ohio Bar association was mainly devoted to the question of territorial acquisition by the United States.

In a lengthy argument Mr. Harmon opposed the proposed change of policy to acquire foreign territory, speaking in part as follows:

We have made war on a ground so unusual that there is scarcely a precedent. That ground was so high and so consistent with our ideas that I am not ready to deny that under all the circumstances we were justified in making a precedent. But we knew for various reasons we were liable to be suspected of covetousness lurking behind our professed motives, and to be accused of making a pretext rather than a precedent.

The war resolutions, therefore, which were passed almost without dissent and approved without hesitation, were made expressly to declare that we did not covet our neighbor's lands from which we demanded her withdrawal.

That neighbor, thus made our enemy, has, scattered over the globe, the remnants of her great possessions. It was of course proper to attack her in any of these as well as in Cuba. The victory which Commodore Dewey promptly won seemed to bring within her grasp a large group of inhabited islands nearly 8,000 miles away, and to show that still others might be had for the taking. Various pretexts are suggested for a cause from our disclaimer of territorial cedality.

To get dominion over strange people for the mere purpose of governing them, not admitting them as equals in a family of states, stretching into permanency for that purpose a power meant to be temporary and occasional only, and for that reason left unrestricted, is rightly called an imperial policy. It would be idle and discredit the Declaration of Independence, and condemn us of hypocrisy. We can not under our system govern any people without letting them help govern us. The reaction would be swift and sure.

It is not pleasant to play Cassandra. It is easier to join the shouting and the dancing of those who seem to think the past is dead and the future assured. But one's duty to his countrymen is to give warning of evil when he believes he detects its approach.

Bridge Carpenters Killed.

Greensburg, Ind., July 13.—Eugene and Bardner Campbell of Guilford, 56 and 45, respectively, were killed by a Big Four train near Aurora. They were employed as bridge carpenters by the Big Four and were working near Aurora, when their attention was attracted by a Baltimore and Ohio train. They stepped on the Big Four track and were struck and hurled several feet away. They were taken to Lawrenceburg in an unconscious condition and lived only a short while.

Will Kill the Sheriff.

Danville, Ky., July 13.—Messengers came to Danville to warn Sheriff Coulter that two brothers and a cousin of Dick Votaw were at home from the army on furlough, and were making threats of coming to Danville and killing Coulter on account of his killing their kinsman, the double murderer, while resisting arrest last week. Sheriff Coulter's house was guarded.

Fell to His Death.

Greensburg, Ind., July 13.—Charles Van Haaren, a fresco painter of Louisville, Ky., employed in frescoing the Catholic church in this city, while working near the ceiling, was thrown by the breaking of the scaffold. His head struck one of the church pews, fracturing his skull and breaking his neck. He died in a few minutes.

Knocked Out at a Dance.

Laporte, Ind., July 13.—During a dance at Mill Creek, Milo Little was struck over the head, and is thought to be fatally hurt. A man named Winship, between whom and Little there was a long-standing feud, has been arrested as the supposed assailant.

Young Woman Swallows Poison.

Columbus, Ind., July 13.—Miss Lillie, daughter of Thomas J. Merritt, a respected and wealthy farmer of Wayne township, committed suicide by taking poison. It is claimed that she was disappointed in love.

Washington, July 13.—Major William G. Moore, 69, for the past 12 years superintendent of police, died here. By reason of his varied experience and official connections, Major Moore was well known throughout the country. In early life he was a newspaperman and a reporter of congressional debates. When the civil war broke out he enlisted in a local military company, but soon afterward was detailed for duty in the office of Simon Cameron when secretary of war. During 1865 Mr. Moore filled the position of private secretary to Lincoln.

Another Prize Captured.

Key West, July 13.—The sloop Wary, flying the British flag was brought in here as a prize of war. She was captured by the St. Louis about 10 miles from Santiago de Cuba, while bound for Jamaica for Santa Cruz with a cargo of provisions. It is thought her British registry is a subterfuge to enable her to land supplies in Cuba for the starving Spaniards.

Washington, July 13.—The statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $224,561; gold reserve, $172,643.

BRYAN WAS INDORSED

By the Democrats of Illinois In Convention.

A SOUND NATIONAL POLICY

Is What the War With Spain Is Considered, and Its Energetic Prosecution For Welfare of Humanity Is Demanded.

Springfield, Ills., July 13.—The Democratic state convention nominated the following ticket: State treasurer, Willard F. Dunlap, Jacksonville; state superintendent of public instructions, Perry O. Stiver of Freeport; trustees of the University of Illinois, Jacob E. Seiler of Mt. Carmel, Napoleon B. Morrison of Oden and Dr. Julie Holmes Smith of Chicago.

The chief incident of the convention proceedings was a bitter fight over the appointment on the state central committee of two men prominent as Gold Democrats in 1896—Ben T. Cable of Rock Island and Roger C. Sullivan of the Fifth Congressional district.

The fight was carried into the convention, where Cable was denounced as a traitor; but the choice of both Cable and Sullivan as committeemen was finally ratified, it having been announced that they would hereafter support the Chicago platform.

The platform endorses the free silver and tariff planks of the Chicago declaration; demands legislation to more clearly define the duties of courts in the issuing of writs of injunction, and the adoption of national and state anti-trust legislation. The platform continues:

"We reaffirm the Monroe doctrine and again pledge ourselves to abide by the advice of Washington to keep ourselves free from entangling alliances with foreign nations. We recognize William Jennings Bryan as the leading exponent of the foregoing principle.

"We pronounce the present war with Spain justified by every consideration of justice and sound national policy. We congratulate the Democratic minority in congress for their firm stand in demanding the redress of our national honor, indorse the declaration of war with Spain, and demand its energetic prosecution in the cause of humanity.

"We rejoice in the glorious deeds of valor of our soldiers and sailors and greatly deplore the

SPAIN's much dreaded torpedo boats couldn't stand the fire of our smallest war vessels. The torpedo boat seems to be a failure as a fighter.

JUDGE RAMSAY, of Owingsville, says Hon. Walter Sharp, of Bath, has decided to enter the contest for the Democratic Congressional nomination. He's late getting into the fight.

LIEUTENANT LUCIEN YOUNG with his little vessel, the Hist, was in the thick of the fight when Cervera's fleet sailed out of Santiago last week. The Hist and the Gloucester looked after the torpedo boats, and with a little help from the big war vessels soon forced them ashore.

THE past year has been a record breaker for Uncle Sam in the export business. More than $600,000,000 of merchandise, $300,000,000 of which were breadstuffs, were sent out from American ports, causing a balance in America's favor of more than $320,000,000. Thirty millions of silver were exported and in the period named $100,000,000 of gold were drawn into this country from Europe.

THE Washington Sentinel claims that 80 per cent. or more of the tariff taxes is collected from articles of universal use and necessity. It also claims that 60 per cent. of the new internal war taxes, according to estimates, falls upon the poor and 30 per cent. upon the middling class, leaving only 10 per cent. to be paid by the rich. Congress should try to "equalize" these burdens, but it won't do anything of the kind.

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE." The Cincinnati Times-Star well says that no matter how many claims "Fighting Bob" Evans makes to having put a quietus to the Cervera squadron, to having shot the tail off the Pluton, no matter how many dispatches Sampson and Watson may write and send, the future historian of the naval battle of Santiago will not overlook several important facts which the post battle examination has developed, an examination made by naval experts. Among these facts are that the Vizcaya was riddled by the Brooklyn and Oregon and was not struck by a projectile larger than 8-inch. There is not a scratch on her that would indicate that a 12 or 13-inch shell aimed at her by "Fighting Bob" Evans hit her. Captain Eulate said that the Brooklyn's secondary battery fire was so terrible that the men deserted their guns. The post battle examination has confirmed Captain Eulate's statement. Another statement recently made by members of the Spanish squadron that the four Spanish ships trained their guns on the Brooklyn, knowing her speed, hoping to get away from the other American ships, is also confirmed by the discovery that all of the guns of the Spanish ships were trained forward, showing that they were all directed to fire on the Brooklyn. Meantime Commodore Schley and Lieut. Commander Wainwright are keeping still. Their most eloquent defense is found in the now silent evidence. They did their work well and thoroughly and will receive the credit due them for their splendid and effective services in demolishing the Spanish fleet.

It will be made by a Cincinnati concern, and will cost about $350. The band is being rapidly organized, and concerts will begin in about two or three days. Nineteenths of the band are from Cincinnati and near-by towns.

LEXINGTON Leader: "Already the prediction is freely made that the Fourth will be the finest regiment to leave Kentucky. It will go from here with 1,300 men, big, stalwart fellows, already hardened, and perhaps more able to stand severe service than any other regiment of volunteers in the entire country. In fact there is no doubt but what these men could undergo right now just as many hardships as the regulars. Flies and Mosquitos

Have begun to sing. Their night and morning songs with such persistence that a comfortable sleep is impossible unless you are on the "safe side" of one of our good

Mosquito Bars.

These Bars have become deservedly popular because of their large size, good quality and extremely low price. We have them in white, pink, blue. They measure about 10 yards in the sweep, are extra long and are big enough for the bed and cradle too—if there happens to be a cradle. There is one small thing about them however,—the price. We charge only $1 each for them, complete with cord, hook, etc. Do not be fooled into the belief that this is the same as the little skimpy, half-made bar that is too high priced at $1. Remember it is yours for the very small price of $1, which is at least 25 per cent. less than this Bar is usually sold. You'll call it a safe investment when with its help you enjoy a good morning nap. Shall we deliver one at your residence?

BURNED OUT.

An Ex-Maysvillian's Cigar Factory at Mexico, Mo., Destroyed by Fire.

[Mexico Ledger, July 5.]

This morning at about 4 o'clock the cigar factory belonging to C. D. Stickley, the manufacturer of the noted "Whizzer" cigar, was totally destroyed by fire. The flames were detected by some one in the street who sounded the alarm which awakened the foreman of the factory, Mr. Jack Ray, who was sleeping in the rear room of the building. He was nearly surrounded by fire and had to make a hasty escape, leaving all his clothes to burn. The fire company reached the place and extinguished the fire, but not until it had totally destroyed the house and goods. A large number of cigars and a quantity of fine tobacco were either burned or destroyed by water and smoke. Mr. Stickley had for the past few years manufactured cigars in this place and it is safe to say he has made a success. His "Whizzer" cigar is one of the best, best known and best advertised cigars on the market.

Mr. Stickley carried a small insurance, but not enough to cover half his loss, which he estimates at $2,500.

Mr. Stickley will resume business just as soon as he can find a suitable location.

"Stick" is chock full of enterprise and a little thing like a fire will cut no ice with him. He will be manufacturing cigars again in a few days.

Bourbon's Wheat Crop.

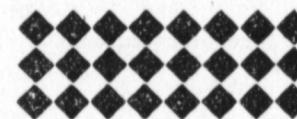

[Bourbon News.] The acreage of wheat in Bourbon this year was almost double that of last year, and it is thought that the yield will be good. A number of crops have been threshed, and the yield has ranged from eighteen to thirty-two bushels per acre. The buyers offered 68 cents last week, but the price here Monday was 72 cents. The Paris Milling Company has engaged a number of crops at 68 to 72 cents. R. B. Hutchcraft has bought about 10,000 bushels at 70 to 72 cents, and Brent Bros., the Milling Company and Mr. Hutchcraft have contracted to store large quantities for farmers who will hold the crops for higher prices. It is believed that at least half of the Bourbon crop will be stored. The new wheat is not as good in quality as last year's crop.

THE FLAG FUND GROWS.

Many Responses to the Call for Cash To See the Colors for Our Soldier Boys.
Presentation Sunday July 24.

Maysville and Mason County should join heartily in the move to present their soldier boys with a handsome flag to carry with them to Cuba, Porto Rico or any other point to which they may be ordered. And the response ought to be prompt, as the colors should be presented before the company leaves Camp Corbin.

The necessary funds could be contributed by a comparatively few citizens, but those who have the matter in charge want as many of our citizens as possible to join in the move, and so suggested 25 cents as the limit of any single subscription.

Hand in your quarters or send them to the BULLETIN office and they will be reported and turned over to the committee. The following have contributed:

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.
